Be a Friend of the Public Library of Youngstown & Mahoning County

Friends are very special volunteers who give of their time and support to enhance the Library system, as well as reading, literacy, and our community.

The newly-formed Friends of the Public Library of Youngstown & Mahoning County is looking forward to exciting possibilities, programs and events.

Friends are an important component in the Library's mission of providing the highest quality of service possible. This group will be an essential part of the Library's fundraising and development efforts, beginning with the new bookstore located in Poland Library.

The Friends invite you to join this exciting new group. What will you gain as a member of the new Friends group?

- * An opportunity for sharing and interacting with others who love their libraries and to participate in fun and innovative programs.
- * The satisfaction of knowing that your efforts are assisting with important programs, such as teen services and the annual Summer Reading Club.
- * A 10% discount on purchases at the Chapters Cafe in Poland and Austintown libraries.

Join us! You'll be glad you did.
