  - NOTE: To see all the digitized newspapers available in Google go to:
<http://news.google.com/newspapers>

a. Browse for a specific day, week, month, year or decade

b. Click on the arrows  to browse

c. Click on View All to get to the specific issue of the newspaper. View All appears for every search but Day

d. Click on the newspaper image to open it. You can scroll up and down all the pages individually or use the index on the first page, when available, just like the microfilm. It is sometimes easier to identify and get to the correct page before using the zoom feature for article copying and pasting. Note: When Browsing, there are many missing issues/dates. Plus, some dates actually have 2 or more days of the newspaper linked together.

Copying Articles from Google News Digital Vindicator to Save or Print

2. Find an article in the digital archive:

When you have a newspaper open in Google's News Archive, such as below, take note of the icons in the light blue toolbar and the miniature newspaper on the right side.

Back to Article: If you scroll up, down, or anywhere away from where the newspaper opened up, you can click this icon to return to your starting point.

Fit to Height: Zooms out so you view the entire newspaper page

Full Screen: Zooms in and closes the Google news search bar

Notice the blue shaded box on the miniature newspaper to the right.

It is showing what part of the newspaper page you are currently viewing. You can click and drag the box in order to move quickly around (up, down, sideways, diagonally) the newspaper page.

3. Once you find an article you want to save &/or print, you need to copy the article over into a Word document.
  - a. Click on the Full Screen icon
  - b. On the Internet Explorer Menu Bar, Click View, then scroll down and Click Full Screen or press F11
This hides the Internet Explorer toolbars and provides a larger view window for copying your article
  - c. Press and hold the Alt key and Print Scrn key (Print Screen key) at the same time, then let go of both keys.
This copies the image on the screen into the computer's clipboard memory.
  - d. Scroll the mouse to the top right corner of the web page and pause for a moment. The toolbar will appear, and you need to click on the Restore button  or press F11

- e. Open a blank Microsoft Word document
- f. Click the Paste icon
- g. If not all of the article was showing on the screen when you copied it, Press Enter to move the cursor to the next line in the Word document. Then return to the newspaper article in Google, scroll downward, and repeat steps c through f until all the article is copied over to Word.

Cropping & Formatting Articles from Google News Digital Vindicator To Save or Print

Cropping

1. Click on one image/copy of the Google newspaper article screenshot
2. Click on Picture Tools
3. Click on Crop or Size (if the crop button does not appear)
4. The cursor should now be this  if successful. Also blue squares or black lines & corner pieces will appear around the border of the image. Cropping can only be done where the blue squares or black lines appear. Left click on one of those points and drag toward the center of the image; the crop symbol will become a T if the cursor is positioned correctly. Repeat for all sides.
5. If it took multiple print screens to copy the article, Repeat the cropping with the rest of the pasted sections of the article
6. Enlarge each article section
7. Center each article section (optional), by clicking on a section and then clicking the Center icon on the Home Ribbon
8. If all of the sections line up properly then save.
9. If the sections are not aligned properly, click on a lower section, click on Picture Tools on the ribbon, then click Position and a window will open
10. Click on More Layout Options at the bottom, and then click on In Front of Text. This will allow that section to be moved until it is aligned with the upper section.

Additional Formatting to Lighten the image and remove any unwanted highlighting

1. Each section of the article needs to be adjusted, so click on a section
2. Click on Picture Tools
3. Click on Contrast, then click up to +40% if the image stays clear
OR
Click on Recolor, then click on Grayscale or Black and White

Creating a Citation for the Newspaper Article

Do this so you know where it came from and when. Citation should include the following:
City, Title of Newspaper, Date of Newspaper, Page of Newspaper, and Column of Newspaper

Printing from Microsoft Word 2013

1. Click on FILE located at the upper left corner of the screen,
2. Scroll down to Print
3. Then scroll across and click on Print

Saving in Microsoft Word 2013

1. Click on FILE located at the upper left corner of the screen
2. Click on Save As
3. Slide across and click on Computer
