

HAPPENINGS NOVEMBER 2020

at your Library

Juana Martinez-Neal

Virtual Author Visit

KIDS: Celebrate finishing Summer Discovery & the fall season with a virtual visit with award-winning author and illustrator, Juana Martinez-Neal. Alma and How She Got Her Name won a 2019 Caldecott Award Honor, a Sibert Medal and a Pura Belpré Medal for Illustration. Juana was born in Peru and lives in Arizona with her family.

Virtual Author Visit, 2-3 p.m. on Fri., Nov. 20

Santa Visits the Library!

Join us for a drive-thru visit with Santa at Canfield Library. Listen to Santa read a story on your car radio and snap a picture of Santa, his reindeer and sleigh as you drive through the lot.

You can drop off your letter to Santa on your way out and we'll be sure he gets it to take back to the North Pole. For this special visit, our parking lot will be one way only, entering at Lisbon Street and exiting at Route 224.

Canfield Library, 11 a.m.-1 p.m. on Sat., Nov. 28

GIVING TUESDAY

In the spirit of the holiday season, please consider donating on #Giving Tuesday, December 1. Gifts to the Library Foundation help to promote literacy, provide Library materials and services, contribute to special programming, author visits, Summer Discovery, and much more. For more information on how you can make a gift on #Giving Tuesday or any other time of the year, please contact, Deborah Liptak, Development Director, at 330-740-6086; e-mail at dliptak@libraryvisit.org; or on the Library's website at www.LibraryVisit.org/giving/. Your donation makes a difference for your Library's future.
