

‘Tails & Tales’ Library Summer Discovery Program Continues with These July Programs

YOUNGSTOWN (Update: July 23, 2021/For Immediate Release) - Mark your calendars to attend these July programs at the Public Library of Youngstown & Mahoning County.

The Library’s Summer Discovery Program, “Tails & Tales,” promises a summer of fun through July 31. Sign up online at the Library’s website at www.LibraryVisit.org/summer-discovery or through the free “ReadSquared” app available in the Apple app store or on Google Play.

See Children’s Author and Illustrator Grace Lin

Children that complete our Summer Discovery program this year will be able to attend a virtual visit with award-winning children’s book author and illustrator, Grace Lin. Grace, a Caldecott and Newbery Medal winner, is the author of picture books, early readers, and middle-grade novels and will be discussing her books and answering questions.

Tales of Travel - For our Summer Discovery theme of "Tails and Tales," join us for "tales" of travel, also known as "armchair travel." Each month we will virtually explore a remarkable, nearby U.S. city. Due to the pandemic, many people are not taking vacations. Or if they are, it is to closer, drivable locations. Thus, we will focus on virtually experiencing three cities that are within a day's drive: Cleveland on May 8; Gettysburg (with a side trip to Hershey) on June 19; Mackinac Island on July 17. Feel free to bring your expert travel tips or memories of the city to this program to share on-camera. Please register with an email address; you will receive a Zoom invitation within 24-hour of the program(s). Adults.
